Corporate governance statement

GreenMobility A/S, CVR no. 35 52 15 85

1 GreenMobility A/S – Statement on Corporate Governance

This corporate governance statement for GreenMobility A/S, company registration no. 35 52 15 85 (“GreenMobility” or the “Company”) has been prepared pursuant to Section 107b of the Danish Financial Statements Act and the Rules for Issuers of Shares of Nasdaq Copenhagen A/S. This statement has been prepared in connection with GreenMobility’s annual report for 2023 and forms part of the management review.

2 Management structure

GreenMobility has a two-tier management structure consisting of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management. The two bodies are separate and have no overlapping members. The Board of Directors is responsible for the overall and strategic management and proper organization of GreenMobility’s business and operations and it supervises GreenMobility’s activities, management and organization. The Board of Directors appoints and dismisses the members of the Executive Management, who are responsible for the day-to-day management of GreenMobility.

3 Board of Directors

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three and not more than seven members elected by the general meeting. Currently, the Board of Directors consists of three members elected by the general meeting. The Board of Directors elects a Chairman of the Board of Directors among its members. The Board of Directors may in addition elect a Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. Under the Recommendations on Corporate Governance, all three members of the current Board of Directors have been assessed by GreenMobility to be independent. The members of the Board of Directors comprise a group of professionally skilled business people also representing diversity and international experience.

The members of the Board of Directors are elected by the general meeting are elected for a term of one year until the next annual general meeting. Members of the Board of Directors may be re-elected.

The Board of Directors normally holds at least five regular meetings annually, including a strategy review, plus ad hoc meetings as required.

4 Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, which has a charter setting forth its purpose and responsibilities. The Audit Committee reports and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee currently consists of two members appointed by and among the Board of Directors. The overall purpose of the Audit Committee is to review accounting and audit matters that by decision of the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee require a more thorough evaluation, and assess the internal controls and risk management systems of GreenMobility. Its duties also include supervision of GreenMobility’s auditors and review of the audit process.

The Audit Committee shall convene when it is deemed necessary or appropriate, however it is expected to be convened at least three times a year. GreenMobility’s Chief Financial Officer shall participate in the meetings of the Audit Committee, unless otherwise requested by the Audit Committee, and GreenMobility’s external auditor shall participate in meetings of the Audit Committee if so requested by the Audit Committee. The external auditor shall attend at least one meeting per year or the relevant part hereof where the Executive Management is not present.

The members of the Audit Committee meets the independence requirement set out in the Corporate Governance Recommendations.

5 Executive Management

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Executive Management shall consist of one to four members appointed by the Board of Directors. As of 31 December 2023, the Executive Management consisted of two members, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, who is responsible for the day-to-day management and compliance with the procedures, instructions, guidelines and recommendations issued by the Board of Directors. As of 12 January 2024, the Chief Financial Officer has left the executive management as part of the announced exit from the company in the Spring of 2024. As of this date, the Executive Management consists of one member. The Executive Management's responsibilities include inter alia organization of GreenMobility as well as allocation of resources, determination and implementation of strategies and policies and ensuring timely reporting to the Board of Directors. The Executive Management also presents and recommends proposals on the overall strategy and objectives to the Board of Directors.

6 Internal control and financial reporting procedures

The Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and the Executive Management are ultimately responsible for GreenMobility's risk management and internal controls in relation to its financial reporting, and approve GreenMobility's general policies in that regard. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in overseeing the reporting process and the most important risks involved in this respect. The Executive Management is responsible for the effectiveness of the internal controls and risk management and for the implementation of such controls aimed at mitigating the risk associated with the financial reporting.

GreenMobility has internal control and financial reporting procedures aimed at enabling it to monitor its performance, operations, funding and risk. Currently, GreenMobility does not have any internal audit function. The Board of Directors will continuously review the need for such function.

7 Recommendations for good corporate governance

GreenMobility is currently subject to the Recommendations on Corporate Governance from December 2020, which are available on the Committee on Corporate Governance's website www.corporategovernance.dk. As a company listed on Nasdaq Copenhagen, GreenMobility is required to report on its compliance with these recommendations according to the "comply or explain" principle. GreenMobility's position on each recommendation is described in the following and reflects the situation at the time of the reporting.

GreenMobility complies with the Recommendations on Corporate Governance in all material respects, except that GreenMobility has opted to deviate in the following areas:

- Recommendation 1.1.3: GreenMobility publishes quarterly trading statements in the form of company announcements instead of quarterly financial reports for Q1 and Q3. GreenMobility believes this is an appropriate level of disclosure based on its focus on creation of long-term shareholder value and the characteristics of the business.

Quarterly trading statements enable shareholders, analysts and other stakeholders to assess GreenMobility's performance by providing a reporting overview of certain financial metrics and key performance indicators, including relevant comparative figures as well as management's view on e.g. operating highlights, recent market developments and commercial outlook, as well as relevant non-revenue items.

- Recommendation 1.4.2

GreenMobility has currently not formally adopted and made public a tax policy. As part of the Company's growth strategy, the group and parent company is for now loss making and thereby having no (or limited) taxable income.

GreenMobility expects to adopt a tax policy once or before the company reaches a break-even level.

- Recommendation 2.2.1:

Due to the size and needs of GreenMobility, the Board of Directors has not found it relevant to formally appoint a deputy chairperson. The Board of Directors will continuously assess the need to appoint a deputy chairperson of the Board of Directors.

- Recommendation 4.1.6:

GreenMobility is not currently entitled to reclaim variable remuneration paid to members of the Executive Management and the Board of Directors. When entering into new agreements on variable remuneration, the Company may decide to include the right to reclaim variable remuneration, in full or in part, if the basis on which the variable remuneration was paid proves to be manifestly misstated.

consist of long-term schemes with a vesting or maturity period of at least three years.
4.1.3. The Committee recommends that the variable part of the remuneration has a cap at the time of grant, and that there is transparency in respect of the potential value at the time of exercise under pessimistic, expected and optimistic scenarios.	✓
4.1.4. The Committee recommends that the overall value of the remuneration for the notice period, including severance payment, in connection with a member of the executive management's departure, does not exceed two years' remuneration including all remuneration elements.	✓
4.1.5. The Committee recommends that members of the board of directors are not remunerated with share options and warrants.	✓

Recommendation	Complies	Deviates	Explanation
4.1.6. The Committee recommends that the company has the option to reclaim, in whole or in part, variable remuneration from the board of directors and the executive management if the remuneration granted, earned or paid was based on information, which subsequently proves to be incorrect, or if the recipient acted in bad faith in respect of other matters, which implied payment of a too large variable remuneration.		÷	GreenMobility does not comply with recommendation 4.1.6. GreenMobility does currently not have the ability to reclaim variable remuneration. GreenMobility is not currently entitled to reclaim variable remuneration paid to members of the Executive Management and the Board of Directors. When entering into new agreements on variable remuneration, the Company may decide to include the right to reclaim variable remuneration, in full or in part, if the basis on which the variable remuneration was paid proves to be manifestly misstated.
5. Risk management
5.1. Identification of risks and transparency about other relevant information
5.1.1. The Committee recommends that the board of directors based on the company's strategy and business model considers, for instance, the most significant strategic, business, accounting and liquidity risks. The company should in the management commentary give an account of these risks and the company's risk management.	✓
5.1.2. The Committee recommends that the board of directors establishes a whistleblower scheme, giving the employees and other stakeholders the opportunity to report serious violations or suspicion thereof in an expedient and confidential manner, and that a procedure is in place for handling such whistleblower cases.	✓
